

iAge
e-Inclusion in Ageing Europe
www.iageproject.eu

J.H.Bos

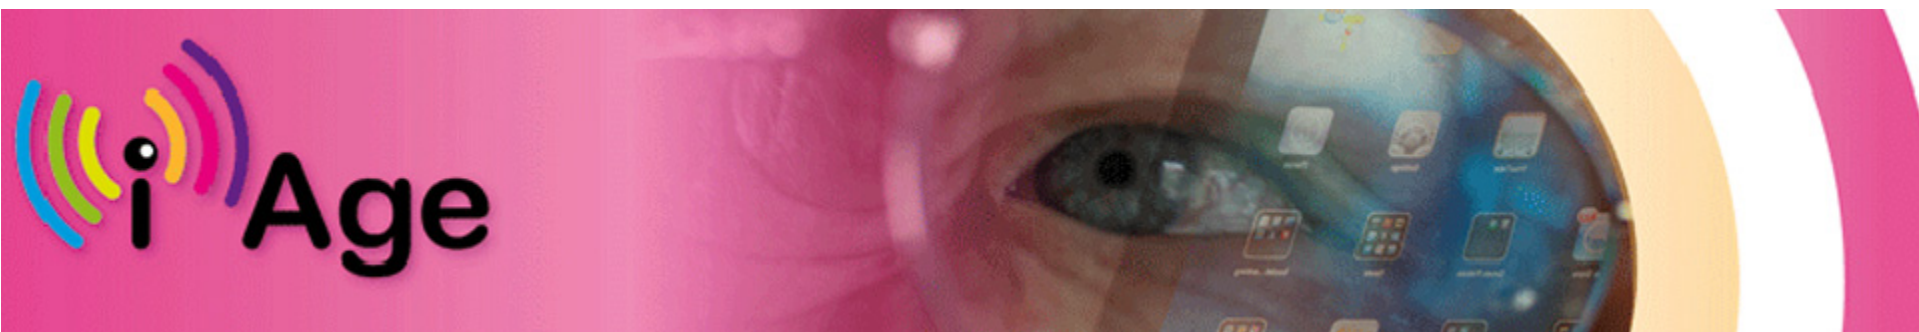

iAge

- iAge aims to promote and increase economic and social e-inclusion of elderly.
- Until 2030 the number of people of 65+ > 50%
- Significant impact on pensions, health care, the labour market

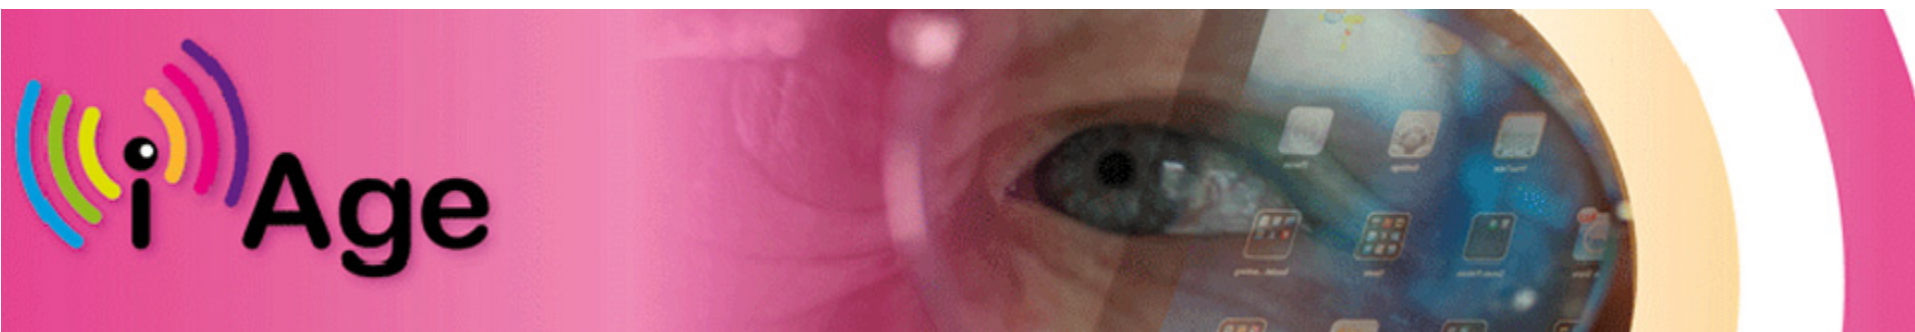

Elderly and ICT

- ICT gains in importance to make use of the growing number of elderly, keeping them active and participate in social and work life, thereby increasing the regional and economic development.
- Project LifeLong Living has setup profile ranking for elderly and their ICT skill level

The assignment

- Build mobile apps that will help elderly
 - Investigate demands and
 - Match demand with possible mobile app's
 - Select volunteers to test with
 - Build app (intensive program in Dundee Schotland)
 - Test app on the group volunteers

Student profile

- Profile of students we are looking for
 - ICM Webdevelopment/game design
 - ICT Software engineering (I/TI)
 - HIT
 - Human Technology
 - Applied psychology

