Aims and Scope:

Real Estate Finance (REF) provides subscribers with the necessary information for making important decisions about structuring their real estate finance transactions. Coverage includes pricing REITS and mortgage-backed securities, valuing overseas investment opportunities, the latest in regulatory proposals and legislation, and real estate tax updates. It also provides insight into the best commercial real estate investments. In each quarterly issue, you'll profit from the expertise of real estate industry leaders: investment managers and advisors, bankers and insurers, developers, property managers, tax planners, attorneys, accountants, government officials, and academics.

Historical Acceptance Rate: 30%. We follow a double-blind review process.
